

Shaman™ Bass

Shaman:

sha-man (shä'män, shä-) noun - one who acts as a medium between the natural and spiritual world.

Shaman™ Bass:

sha-man bass (shä'män beys) noun - a musical instrument that acts as a medium between you and your musical spirit.

When you pick up a Shaman Bass and begin to play, you immediately know that you're holding a powerful tool. From the fine fret work and beautiful inlays, to the Grover tuners and dual pickups, this bass looks, sounds and plays great!

Get a Shaman Bass and get closer to your spiritual world.

All Shaman™ Bases Feature:

- contoured basswood body
- maple bolt on neck - rosewood fret board
- 2 way adjustable truss rod
- 20 medium/jumbo frets
- 34 inch scale (863.6 mm)
- 12 inch radius (304.8 mm)
- smooth satin finish on back of neck (standard series)
- neck width at nut: 1-5/8 inch (41.275 mm)
- neck width at 20 fret: 2-1/2 inch (63.5 mm)
- delta leaf inlays
- 1 split coil pickup (neck)
- 1 single coil pickup (bridge)
- chrome hardware
- two volume knobs
- two tone knobs
- Grover machine heads
- Wilkinson bridge
- 45 - 100 gauge strings

The Shaman™ Signature Series Features:

- contoured walnut + alder + walnut body
- maple with walnut stripes neck thru body
- matching walnut headstock
- abalone delta leaf inlays

Signature Series

Signature I

Standard Series

Antique White

Midnight Black

Firehouse Red

Back View